always at your service

What do I get in the First Free Consultation?

The first consultation is free and it usually takes about an hour. It's your opportunity to discuss your situation with us in detail.

We will provide a full overview of the options that may be available to you.

Also, we will also provide an outline of the costs for each option.

An Expert advice on your visa means resolving matters quickly is a priority for us. You will receive:

- a clear idea about the options available to you
- a specific pathway for those options
- a realistic expectation of how long it will take to resolve the matter
- a firm understanding on the potential costs involved.

You will walk away from that consultation with clarity and direction.

always at your service

What do I bring for the Free Consultation?

- You need to bring your passport.
- If possible, please bring your qualification and current visa grant letter or refusal letter (if you have any)

I have never met them face to face..

I took the Free Phone Consultation with Universal Migration who took care of entire 457 visa lodgement process. Even though I have never met them face to face. I was updated regularly and felt taken care of at every step. Thanks to them I am working in Australia I would definitely recommend Universal Migration to anyone who wants peace of mind and security with their Employer Sponsor visa application.
